Healing the Inner Child Weekend

June 6-8, 2008

Deep inside of each of us lays the "Sacred Presence". It is our core essence, our connection to God, the Goddess, our Divine Birthright and it holds the secret plan for our lives.

However, many of us (1 out of 4 women) were wounded as children, raped, molested, verbally abused, witnessed or experienced violence, abandoned resulting in trauma. Our “gift” becomes eclipsed by pain and anger and we create ways to deal with what we are experiencing (psychic numbing, loosing time) that do not serve our higher purpose.

We loose our way. The map (plan) for our lives becomes hidden as low self-esteem, shame and guilt replace it. As this spiritual dis-ease manifests in many shapes and forms, some of us turn to alcohol, drugs, sex, eating disorders, cutting, depression, become violent ourselves, end up in abusive, dysfunctional relationships and repeat the cycle of self-hate all over again.

Healing Space: We will gather in the sacred space of 8 Acres to explore and examine the effects of childhood sexual abuse, PTSD Disorder, Dissociate Disorder, trauma survivors and survivors of incest to “deal”, “feel” and “heal” by the sea. There we will recover our inner glory and celebrate our sacred self.

We do this by opening up the inner vault the child is hiding in, exposing our secrets, exorcizing our demons, and burying our past in a safe, intimate, nurturing and supportive environment.

Healing Tools: Through the healing tools of “trusting the process”, prayer, meditation, healing circles, breathing exercises, role playing, playtime, inner communication, positive self- talk we take back our power!

Healing Therapies: We will utilize healing therapies such as reiki, body detox mud scrubs massage, reflexology, healing with sound and dolphin healing therapy to reclaim and rebirth the life we were sent here to live.

Special Closing Ceremony: Entitled “Back to the Womb of God” will be presented by Djah Djah as we sail out to Wilma Island aboard Dancing Dolphin Spirit Charters with Captain Victoria Impallomeni.

Participants: We welcome women of all 12 step backgrounds. Due to the sensitive nature of this healing retreat, participants will be screened before being allowed to attend. This retreat is already half filled so please call early for reservations.
